

Canyon Ranch holds first residents' party

SAVOR sumptuous California-style meat and seafood barbecue, grilled to perfection in hardwood fire. Spend quality time with your family in an outdoor picnic amid a cool climate and lush greenery. Make new friends as you meet neighbors in your new, exclusive Wi-Fi-integrated community. Marvel at the tourist and leisure attractions nearby. Join the festivities and games, and get the chance to win exciting prizes!

These and more surprises await homeowners and visitors on March 4 at Canyon Ranch, Century Properties' very first horizontal development in Carmona, Cavite, as it holds its first community gathering, dubbed "Canyon Ranch Residents' Party, Celebrating the Great Outdoors."

Inspired by the festive spirit of California outdoor barbecue picnics, the party will treat homeowners of the award-winning residential development to a day of fun and camaraderie. There will be free tours within the San Lazaro Leisure Park and Casino Filipino, as well as raffle draws where participants can win home showcases. The first 50 guests who arrive will bring home a special prize.

our success, as Canyon Ranch is already 99-percent sold-out," said Marco Antonio, managing director of Century Properties.

The Canyon Ranch celebration is likewise a fitting welcome to the fast-approaching summer, one of the best seasons to be with family and friends. And indeed, the California ranch-style community is ideal for families to settle in at whatever season of the year, with its cool, crisp climate, closeness to nature and proximity to schools, hospitals and other key facilities.
